Acknowledgement is made of the response filed in paper no. 8, dated 7/30/03. Amendments are entered. Claims 1-17 are pending. Claims 1-8 stand rejected and claims 9-17 are withdrawn from consideration as non elected invention. Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112 (2) is withdrawn because claims are amended. Art rejections are maintained for the same reasons as set forth in our previous office action.

Applicants arguments were fully considered but are not found persuasive because there is no showing that presently claimed non-crystalline form is different from the prior art teachings.

Claims 1-8 are rejected stand rejected under 102 (b) and 35 U.S.C. 103(a) over Gast (US Patent 5,858,405). Gast teach a hormonal product which embraces applicant's claimed invention. See the entire document especially examples, claims, lines 11-19 and lines 31-67 in col. 7, Instant claims differ from the reference in claiming a broader scope of non crystalline steroid hormone.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to prepare additional beneficial compositions for hormone replace therapy and other estrogen deficiencies.

Since the formulation of the elected compound trimegestone with steroid ethinyl estradiol is taught by the prior art, it would be obvious to prepare the compositions as presently claimed. The term "comprising" in claim 1 allows other ingredients.

The transitional term "comprising", which is synonymous with "including," "containing," or "characterized by," is inclusive or open-ended and does not exclude additional, unrecited elements or method steps. See, e.g., Genentech, Inc. v. Chiron Corp., 112 F.3d 495, 501, 42 USPQ2d 1608, 1613 (Fed. Cir. 1997) ("Comprising" is a term of art used in claim language which means that the named elements are essential, but other elements may be added and still form a construct within the scope of the claim.); Moleculon Research Corp. v. CBS, Inc., 793 F.2d 1261, 229 USPQ 805 (Fed. Cir. 1986); In re Baxter, 656 F.2d 679, 686, 210 USPQ 795, 803 (CCPA 1981); Ex parte Davis, 80 USPQ 448, 450 (Bd. App. 1948) (“comprising” leaves “the claim open for the inclusion of unspecified ingredients even in major amounts”). See MPEP 2111.03.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
